NOTE FOR THE DDCI
DCI

- ° Although this does reflect the consensus, it appears to be a reluctant agreement with a strongly held DDA view. The IG and D/OP are at one end of the scale and the DDA at the other. [redacted] as OGC rep., supports Harry; the General Counsel, subsequently suggested options a., b., or d. His first suggestion (conversation with SecState), it was thought, might succeed with Schultz, but he would undoubtedly turn to Joan Clark - with predictable results.
  - ° On balance, I'd go with Harry. We do have a number of personnel issues we want to orchestrate with Congress and, as comparatively small an issue as this is in dollars or numbers of persons, it's a natural for whipsawing.
  - ° And, as to personal impact, the remaining months in the FY are few; if State does modify their Regulation by October, the maximum individual loss would be [redacted] depending on whether the system could effect the cutback in August or on 1 September.
